TUNACAN TUNA

Culture Writer • Researcher • Journalist • Musician • Radio Programmer • Actor

About

Tunacan Tuna is a Turkish culture writer, researcher, journalist, radio programmer, musician, performer, and actor based in Istanbul.

He graduated with honors from the Art and Cultural Management Department of Yıldız Technical University and develops research-based work on cultural heritage, museums, cultural memory, public history, visual culture, and the relationship between music and society.

His work has appeared in international publications including DailyArt Magazine, Interlude.hk, and New Eastern Europe.

As an independent musician, he has built a substantial audience across digital platforms. His songs “Fena Karıştım,” “Suni Teneffüs,” and “Klarnet” have accumulated millions of views on YouTube.

He has also appeared in the Turkish comedy film Kutsal Damacana and holds an IMDb credit under his artistic profile.

He has also contributed to cultural and curatorial projects at Uz Galeri.

Publications & Media
• DailyArt Magazine
• Interlude.hk
• New Eastern Europe
• TürkTime
• Viyana FM

Research Interests
• Cultural Heritage
• Museums
• Cultural Memory
• Public History
• Visual Culture
• Music and Society
• Intangible Cultural Heritage
• Comparative Museology

Selected Music
• Fena Karıştım
• Suni Teneffüs
• Klarnet

Memberships & Professional Affiliations
• Europa Nostra Young Professional Member
• ISNI: 0000 0005 3018 7483